

Marine Tactical Magazine

2008 Editorial Calendar

Issue 3 - January / February 2008 "Working With Special Ops"

This issue will cover many areas that marine units should consider when using vessels to deliver special operations personnel. Marine Tactical will cover such topics as: the right vessel for the mission, weapons selection and deployment, tactical gear for marine use, intelligence, personnel deployment methods, stealth on the water, and more.

Reservations Deadline 11/16/07

Materials Deadline 11/23/07

Bonus Distribution: SecurePort 2008

Issue 4 - March / April 2008 "Protecting The Ports"

Protecting U.S. Ports has never been a more important topic. We will interview the heads of several port police marine units charged with protecting some of the America's largest ports and the cities that contain them. Marine Tactical will also review some of the intelligence processes and the technology used in U.S. port protection.

Reservations Deadline 1/18/08

Materials Deadline 1/25/08

Bonus Distribution: TBD

Issue 5 - May / June 2008 "U.S. Govt. Marine Units"

This issue will spotlight several U.S. Government marine units to include: FBI, USCG, U.S. CBP, U.S. Park Police, U.S. Secret Service, and others. The magazine will also detail the history and missions of various U.S. Govt. marine units and discuss their future through interviews with unit personnel.

Reservations Deadline 03/21/08

Materials Deadline 03/ 28/08

Bonus Distribution: Multi-Agency Craft Conf. (MACC), the USCG Innovation Expo, the Natl. Sheriffs Assoc. Annual Conf., the USNI - Homeland Port Security Conf., the Airport & Seaport Police Annual Meeting

Issue 6 - July / August 2008 "Training"

This issue will spotlight various U.S. Government and private sector training opportunities available to marine unit personnel. Marine Tactical will visit the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center and look at how DHS is training marine unit personnel in boat operations and counterterrorism tactics. Marine Tactical will also visit the USCG Special Mission Training Center in South Carolina and look at their training techniques.

Reservations Deadline 05/16/08
Materials Deadline 05/23/08

Bonus Distribution: TBD

Issue 7 - September / October 2008 "The Marine NBC Threat"

This issue will follow up on the first Marine Tactical issue with a more in depth look at deployment of nuclear / radiological weapons or chemical weapons via small vessels. Marine Tactical will discuss the realistic potential of such threats, the history, and how such threats could be countered. Marine Tactical will also look at NBC monitoring by small boat operators and resources available to marine units.

Reservations Deadline 07/18/08
Materials Deadline 07/25/08

Bonus Distribution: Intl. Assoc. of Chiefs of Police Annual Conf.

Issue 8 - November / December 2008 "Weapons On Board"

Many local and state marine units are looking to modify their current weapons carried aboard their vessels including moving to high caliber or automatic weapons. Marine Tactical will discuss the merits or problems with different weapon types with many units already deploying such weapons. Marine Tactical will also discuss the training and security issues of different weapon types and give an overview of what a Marine Tactical unit survey says are the best weapons to have onboard.

Reservations Deadline 09/20/08
Materials Deadline 09/27/08

Bonus Distribution: TBD

Special Issue - December 2008

“2009 Directory”

This “special issue” will be the first annual “Marine Tactical Directory for marine Units”. Marine Tactical will list contacts at thousands of local, state, and federal marine units as well as include listings of marine resources and vendors.

Advertising Reservations Deadline 09/20/08

Materials Deadline 09/27/08